ICA Sells LocationSelector.com to Conway Data Inc.

Atlanta based economic development services firm, Conway Data, Inc. (Conway), and Investment Consulting Associates (ICA) reached an agreement on the purchase of LocationSelector.com, ICA's robust tool that benchmarks global locations.

The business intelligence product, developed by ICA, provides detailed business intelligence for more than 350 cities in 200 countries and allows for benchmarking and ranking the competitiveness of investment locations through proprietary methodologies, delivering FDI charts, tables, graphs, financial analysis and best practice monitoring.

"Conway Data is pleased to announce our acquisition of this comprehensive location benchmark portal." said Adam Jones-Kelley, Managing Director of Conway Data Inc., "LocationSelector, when merged with our other comprehensive data resources like the Conway New Plant Report, will provide our corporate and economic development clients with unprecedented research, allowing them to take deeper-dive analysis of cross-border business activity."

"ICA has spent the last 5 years developing and positioning LocationSelector among our corporate and government clients," said Douglas van den Berghe, CEO of ICA, "It is one of the most comprehensive foreign direct investment analytical tools in the industry. We're pleased to turn over the reins of LocationSelector to Conway Data. With Conway Data's other data and information products, LocationSelector will be part of an arsenal of investment resources that will be invaluable to business and the economic community."

About Investment Consulting Associates (ICA)

Investment Consulting Associates (ICA) is a global management advisory firm that specializes in the following services: corporate location strategy, Supply Chain Management, incentive management and advisory, SEZ development, economic development strategies, and FDI advisory. It is our mission to provide customized, effective solutions to our clients' needs through a combination of consulting and state of the art software tools and databases. Our global team of multi-disciplinary professionals has worked on numerous projects in all continents of the world either on behalf of our growing list of corporate clients or as strategic advisor to governmental organizations.

ICA has also developed locationselector.com, a web based software application for companies selecting locations for their (new) business activities and governments assessing and benchmarking the competitiveness of their business environment. To better assist investors with their incentive negotiations, ICAIncentives has been launched as the first ever database tracking real time incentives being awarded across the world as well as monitors active incentive programs.
